Late Start Forensics: Prep and Practice Class to Begin in April

Weed / COS – Of all the programs offered by College of the Siskiyous, Communications Studies is fast becoming one of the most popular. Communication Studies is an academic discipline that deals with processes of human communication. The program focuses on the areas of public communication, small group communication, oral interpretation, and interpersonal communication.

Beginning April 7, Jayne Turk will be teaching Forensics: Prep and Practice (COMS 1101 / #3115) at the Weed Campus . This half-unit class is designed to prepare students for speaking events, and provide structured practice, research, and evaluation. Students will gain experience in several types of speeches like impromptu, extemporaneous, persuasive, and situational.

Contact Jayne Turk with questions or if you need more information about the class by emailing jturk@siskiyous.edu. Registration is open. For registration information, call the Enrollment Services Office at (530) 938-5500. The Weed Campus can also be reached by calling (530) 938-5555 or toll-free, (888) 397-4339. Register in person at the Weed or Yreka campus or register online (anytime) at www.siskiyous.edu. Registration fees are due when registering for classes.
